

Uploading Images

To upload images, you must convert them to links. A good free website you can use to do so is '<https://imgbb.com>'. You can paste this in the spot for uploading images and we will be able to process this and display your picture. Copy the image link ending in jpg and paste it in the space for the image link given on the sell page.

Further Help

For further inquiries, email bee6@calvin.edu to ask questions.